Please read the
Michigan State Fair Code of Conduct
On the following page

Michigan State Fair:

Code of Conduct for Exhibitors, Parents, Family Member(s), and Helpers

The management of the Michigan State Fair (MSF) is committed to providing a safe and respectful show environment and experience that respects the rights of each and every attendee. All exhibitors, parents and other spectators are expected to exhibit outstanding sportsmanship as well as abide by the standards of the Code of Conduct.

Policies for Human Conduct:

The MSF Code of Conduct requires attendees to refrain from the following:

- Behavior that is unruly, disruptive, or illegal in nature
- Direct interference or criticism with the show management and officials, judge, other exhibitors, or breed representatives before, during, or after the competitive event
- Intoxication or other signs of alcohol or substance impairment resulting in poor behavior
- Foul, obscene, threatening, offensive or abusive language, gestures or actions
- Interfering with the progress of the show
- Failing to follow the instructions of the show personnel
- Fighting or physical violence of any type
- Conduct that endangers any person
- Knowingly providing false or inaccurate exhibitor or animal information

Policies for Animal Treatment:

The MSF Code of Conduct requires that animals are not subjected or show signs to any of the following:

- Artificially changing the conformation or appearance by treating the animal, internally or externally, with any irritant, counter irritant, or any other substance
- Adding false hair, wool, or any other similar substance to any part of the animal unless it is allowed by equine and dairy standards
- Forced administration of fluid or substance to the animal that is not considered part of an accepted and normal livestock diet
- Administration of quantities of fluid, feed, or any other substance that is not considered normal
- Use of tranquilizers, sedatives, or depressants which alter the physical or behavioral state of the animal
- Improper care, feed, water, and husbandry of the animal
- Any animal that appears ill, unhealthy or shows any signs of communicable disease/s must be removed from the premise
- Any animal that is unmanageable or poses a safety hazard must be removed from the premise
- Physical abuse of an animal

Violators of this code of conduct, as well as their immediate family members and other helpers, will be subject to disciplinary action including but not limited to cancellations of all premiums and awards as well as suspension from current and future MSF events. The MSF management reserves to its Show Committee and superintendents the final and absolute right to interpret these

Rules and Regulations and settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard to, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to the MSF.

Making Entries for the Michigan State Fair indicates acceptance of the Michigan State Fair Code of Conduct, which is found above and in the General Rules.**
